Train the Trainer of Immigrants

Dates of the project: November 2019 – October 2021

To freshen up the memory to the old ones and to inform the newly interested Train the Trainers of Immigrants- funded by Erasmus+ under Key Action 2, Strategic Partnership in the field of Adult education- is a project that focuses throughout its two active years on the development and implementation of a training methodology on non-formal learning of languages for immigrants. During the project's life cycle there a series of non-formal learning techniques have been developed such as cybercafé, language tandems, and methodologies about dealing with traumatic situations, raise awareness on cultural differences, different socio-economic environment as well as cultural mediation of immigrants. These activities have been tested in the first training in Lesvos, which has successfully taken place in June 2021. During this five day training, each one of the partners implemented part of their work and then followed evaluation, discussion and comments from the other partners. During the LTT participants also had the chance to visit the Kara Tepe Camp, in Lesvos in an organized by the SCS workshop.

The partnership of this project is composed by the coordinator of the project Fundacja Ad Meritum (Poland), Jaume I University Business Foundation (Spain), Active Citizens Association (Greece), Second Chance School of Mytilene (Greece).

Training LTT Castelló, Spain

The Erasmus + TTT-I project has organized a training week in the FUE-UJI. From the 13th to the 17th of September, the FUE-UJI, has hosted in Castelló this training activity that has brought together trainers from the different partner organisations in Greece, Spain and Poland. This training week has marked the start-up point of the online platform Cyber Café, developed within the framework of the project, to offer resources training courses in languages to trainers of trainers of immigrants, refugees and people at risk of social exclusion.

Pilar Safont, Vice-Rector for Language Promotion and Equality at the Universitat Jaume I, has been the in charge of welcoming the participants, as well as inaugurating this training week, accompanied by Gloria Serra, general manager of the FUE-UJI. Representatives of the different partner organizations of this Erasmus + project have given the training sessions, that follow non-formal learning methodologies around gender equality, the European socio-economic environment, the language café, in addition to training in the use of the online platform Cyber Café, where to find more resources.

Moreover, the attendees have also enjoyed a series of workshops and cultural visits. Among them, they have been able to enjoy the workshop given by the NGO of Castellón Ilewasi, who has presented his activities of a social nature to the participants in the training. They have also visited the Unfinished Museum of Urban Art (MIAU) of Fanzara, through which they have been able to observe how art can reactivate rural areas.
